RECEPTION DAY FOR DEBUTANTES

Five Buds Introduced at Luncheons and Dancing Parties.

MISS VON BERGEN TO BE JUNE BRIDE

Engaged to Gerard L. Jackson-Mrs. Francis Rogers Gives Musical.

Mrs. Charles Elliot Warren gave toncheon yesterday at her home, No. 326 West Sth street, for Miss Dorothy Anderton, the delutante daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William A. Anderton, Among the guests were Miss Penelope Sears, Miss Coline Insersoll, Miss Elinor Kendall, Miss Priscilla Bull, Miss Margaret Porter Miss Elizabeth Klapp, Miss Naomi Andiews, Miss Dorothy Hollister, Miss Elise Francke, Miss Barbara Shedd, Derothy Taylor, Miss Annie Gilbert, Miss Edith Farr. Miss Lentilhon Gilford, Miss Neel Haskins, Miss Helen Griffin, Miss Cornelia Cammann, Miss Helen Hiss Miss Eleanor Davies, Miss Susanne Warren, Miss Gertrude Pardee, Miss Florence Heyn, and Miss Margare

Mrs. Charles William Romeyn, of No. East 64th street, gave a the dansan resterday at Sherry's for her debutante daughter, Miss Estelle Y. Romeyn. Miss Romeyn was assisted in receiving by Miss Marie Tailer, Miss Louise Butler, Miss Christina Nichols, Miss Flora Mc-Alpin, Miss Vouletti Proctor, Miss Virginla Scully, Miss Elizabeth Kendall, Miss Esther Howell, Miss Margaret Burgwin, Miss Dorothy Adriance, Miss Margaret Henderson, Miss Polly Jacob, and Mrs. William Everdell, jr. The debutante wore white tulle over white slik, trimmed with

Mrs. William Ledlie Culbert gave a re cention vesterday afternoon at her house No. 16 East 54th street, to introduce her caughter, Miss Katharine Culbert. Inc debutante, who wore a frock of white satin, with a tunic of duchess lace, was ssisted in receiving by Miss Dorothy Bicelow, Miss Marjorie Vreeland, Miss Katherine Place and Miss Fannie Seymour. Miss Helen Booth and Miss Evelyn Derby poured tea. A dinner followed, at which the guests numbered fourteen, and about fifty young people came in later

Mrs. Ernest A. Bigelow introduced Miss Katharine Fay Wilmerding at a reception yesterday afternoon at her house No. 129 East 56th street. The debutar.te was assisted in receiving by Miss Eulalia Garrison, Miss Helen Riordan, Miss Lois Keith, Mics Anne Harrison, and her sisier, Mrs. William B. Sprague. Miss Wilmerding wore a frock of white charmeuse with a tunic of beautiful old lace. The reception was followed by a dinner and fance. The dinner guests, in addition to the receiving party, were William Travers erome, jr., Dwight Partridge, Ernest A. Bigelow, jr., Donald Cari, Vivian J. Paluleri, Albert Hopkins and Reuben Ross.

debutante of yesterday was Miss Virginia Ward, for whom her mother, Mrs. William Lee Ward, gave a reception at her home, No. 127 West 70th street. In the receiving party were Aiss Annie Budd, Miss Elizabeth Hubbard, and Mrs. S. Miss Marie Farrelly, Miss Katherine Quackenbos, Miss May Miller, Miss Madeine Neonan, and Mrs. W. L. Dawbarn charmeuse with silver trimming. dinner and dance followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rogers gave a musical yesterday afternoon at their home, No. 563 Park avenue. Miss Ada. Sassoli, harpist, played, and Mr. Rogers teng, with Miss Morrison at the piano. Among those invited were Mrs. Charles H. Sherrill, Mrs. Francis McN. Bacon, Mrs. William Sloane, Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. C. C. Cuyler, Mrs. Walter Damtosch, Mrs. Montgomery Hare, Mrs. Richard Aldrich, Mrs. Blair Fairchild, Miss Mary R. Callender, and Miss Fanny M. Cottenet.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl von Bergen, of No. 6 West 59th street, announced the ensagement of their daughter, Miss Else von Bergen, to Gerard Livingston Jack-80h, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Jack-80h, of No. 162 West 78th street. Mr. Jackson is a member of the senior class at Yale, and the wedding will take place after his graduation in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus F. Kountze arfived in town yesterday from Orchard Hill Farm, their country place at Ka tonah, N. Y., and are at the Gotham for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White Hubbard, It, and the latter's sister, the Countess de Rambouille, are at the Vanderblit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Monell, who were at the Plaza for the Horse Show. eturned yesterday to their home in

Mr. and Mrs. William E. G. Gaillard, who have been at Briarcliff for several menths, returned to town yesterday and are at the Gotham, where they will remain until June 1.

$1,000 BAIL FOR WOMAN Banker's Wife Held for Undervaluing Goods at Customs. Mrs. Ella Fleming, who with her two daughters arrived on Monday on the North German Lloyd steamship George Washington, was held yesterday in $1,000 ball by United States Commissioner Stanton in Hoboken, for a further hearing on the charge that she failed to declare Soods valued by custims officers at $2,400. Mrs. Fleming is the wife of Thomas land Cement Company, and a director of a bank in Los Angeles. After Mrs. Fleming find declared goods which she valued at $80, the customs officers were not the appraisage. Mrs. John Milton Guthrie, of Greensburg. the appraisers' stores in Manhattan. where it was further examined.

L. P. Padgett Entertained.

P. Padgett, chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee of the House of Rep-

MISS KATHRYNE STEELE.

MISS STEELE PRESENTED Society Welcomes Debutante at

Sun Ridge Hall. Mrs. Charles Steele, made her bow to These promises will be honored by the son society to-night at the home of her of the maker. About a month before his parents, Sun Ridge Hall, the Steele coundeath Mr. Severance sent a letter to the try place.

More than 500 people were present at the dance at which Miss Steele made her Previous to the dance there was dinner, among the diners being Mr. and Mrs. Devereux Milburn, who have just eturned from their wedding tour. Miss Steele proved a most charming and interesting debutante and was de servedly popular during the dancing which was kept up until a late hour.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Peabody, Miss Helen Hitchcock Mr. and Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray Griswold, the Misses Nancy and Laura Canfield, Watson Whitewood, Miss Whitewood, Joseph Stillman, Arthur Gardiner, Seth French, Miss Sarah Mallite, H. Tucker, C. W. Lawrence, Miss Helena Lawrence, Miss Anna Forbes, Harry Sproule, Frank C Appleton and Charles Appleton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Phipps, Mrs. Payne Whitney. Perry Osborne, Miss Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, Miss Edith Mortimer, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, W. Russel Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P Grace, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. DeLancey K. Jay, Mr. and Mrs Joseph H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Scott and Sidney D. Ripley

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Cravath, Miss Vera Cravath, Harvey S. Ladew, Miss Elise Ladew, Mrs. Emily Ladenberg, Miss Eugenia Mae Ladenberg, Miss Emily Randolph, Miss Louise Fleitmann, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Burden, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Miss Clair Bird, Miss Frances Hadden, Mrs. A. S. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bronson Winthrop, Mr. W. Baltazzi and many others from Manhattan.

WEDDINGS.

BURNET-DU MARY.

Robert A. Du Mary, of Albany, and a Stockbridge, aged ninety-six years. niece of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bailey Jordan, of No. 115 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn, was married to F. Dana Burnet, of Cincinnati, yesterday afternoon at the home of her uncle and aunt, with whom she has lived since childhood. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar performed the ceremony. Owing to the illness of Mr. Du Mary only relatives and a few friends were present.

The bride wore white satin trimmed with old lace and embroidered with orange blossoms. Her lace veil was a family heirloom. She carried a white prayer book with a marker of lilies-ofthe-valley.

Mrs. John L. Tonnele, jr., of Manhattan, was matron of honor, and Miss Jennie Jordan was her cousin's flower rector girl. The bridegroom's brother, Clark mony. was best man. Edward B. Jor-and Richard G. Hollaman were

Miss Mary I. McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McKay, of No. 346 Lexington avenue, and a sister of Douglas I. McKay, First Deputy Police Commissioner, was married yesterday afternoon to Lieutenant Selby Harney Frank, U. S. A., of Frankfort, Ky. The Rev. Dr. Merrill.

No. 24 Kingsey

dergast, of Kearny. The ceremony was of the Brick Presbyterian Church, per also performed by Father Marnell. Miss formed the ceremony, which was followed by a small reception.

The bride, who was given away by her rather, wore a gown of ivory satin, with veil of old family lace. She carried white roses and white orchids. Miss Regina O'Sullivan, the maid of honor, was the bride's only attendant. Dr. Louis Frank, of Louisville, was this brother's best man. After a wedding trip Lieutenant Frank and his bride will make their home at Fortress Monroe. Va., where he is stationed.

MATTOCKS-HOFFMAN.

(From The Tribune Correspo Charles S. Jones, of Montclair, and Raymond Lyle Mattocks, of New York, were married this evening in the home of the bride's aunt. Mrs. J. I. Blair Reilley, of Episcopal Church. Phillipsburg, N. J. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Hodge. The bride was given away by her uncle. Mr. Reilley. The matron of honor was Mrs. John Milton Guthrie, of Greensburg.

DECKER-WRIGHT.

[From The Tribune Correspondent.] East Orange, N. J., Nov. 25.—Miss Ger-trude Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs., by the Rev. John C. Green, pastor of the Richard M. Wright, of No. 179 North 19th Congregational Church. street, East Orange, and L. Willard Affairs Committee of the House of Reptember of the National Monetary Commission, was enterlained at lancheon at the Lawyers Club Yesterday by Chester DeWitt Pugsley. Among those present were Colonel Fred E. Farnsworth, general secretary, and Thomas B. Paton, general counsel of the American Bankers' Association, and Dr. Moses Greely Parker, of Boston.

Street, East Orange, and L. Willard Decker, of this city, were married this afternoon at the home of the bridgeroom's nat the home of the bridgeroom's nate many national tended by Miss Elsie Butz, of Paterson, as maid of honor, while the best man was Dr. George A. McLellan, also of East and Miss Helen Bringham Bankers' Association, and Dr. Moses Greely Parker, of Boston.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—Announcement was made to-day of the engagement of Samuel Butler, son of Representative Mass Dr. George A. McLellan, also of East Thomas S. Butler, and Miss Helen Bringham S. Butler, and Miss Helen Bringham S. After a honeymoon through the South Mr. and Mrs. Decker will live in East Orange.

SEVERANCE ESTATE PROVES SURPRISE

Appraisal Fixes Fortune of Standard Oil Operator at $14,803,815.

MONEY GOES TO SON AND DAUGHTER

No Will Left, but Heirs Intend to Make Gifts Promised by Their Father.

Louis H. Severance, who died June 23, was another of those men of large estate who are little known publicly and whose wealth also is unknown until appraised by the state. The estate of Mr. ance was appraised yesterday at $14,803,815, He accumulated most of his fortune in Standard Oil operations, and was an timate friend of John D. Rockefeller, vielived in Cleveland.

In his latter years Mr. Severance made large contributions to Presbyterian missions and educational institutions. He was at one time president of Wooster iniversity, of Wooster, Ohio, of which he was the largest benefactor.

Mr. Severance left no will, and his esate was divided between his son, John L. Severance, and his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Allen, the son receiving $148,-189 more than his sister for commission as administrator of the estate

At the time of Mr. Severance's death Westbury, Long Island, Nov. 26.-Miss there were pledges outstanding to mis-Kathryne Steele, daughter of Mr. and | sions and colleges amounting to $200,000, president of Wooster University in which he said: "Not forgetting the men and women serving valiantly in foreign lands or filling spheres of usefulness at home may I add to the pleasure and good cheer of the Color Day by presenting for the future efficiency of Wooster's sons and daughters, a new and more complete ath-

Of his contributions to missionaries most were to workers in the Far East. Light Seminary at Canton, China, and strains of the bridal chorus from "Lohensio,000 to the International Young Men's grin" pealed out in honor of Mrs. Jessie Lammermoor." For this some will be aided missions in the Philippines. Mr. and Goucher's newest bride.

Severance visited the places where the This is the time honore-

The largest individual holding of Mr. appraised at $1,035 each, making a total of $5,247,450. Among his other holdings were Of course, the sophomores enjoyed the 0 shares Lake Shore, $339,500; 3.000 New event more than anybody else. tric, $340,000, and 1,500 Baltimore & Ohio, ber, and the most popular girl who re $140,000. The bonds owned by Mr. Severance ceived the Goucher A. B. were valued at $253,582. Mr. Severance had in cash $267,529; notes, $115,456. His jewel-ry was valued at $2,452.

NEW HARRIMAN MANSION House on Mountain Top for Railroad Man's Daughter.

By Telegraph to The Tribu Newburgh, N. Y., Nov. 26.-To make room for a mansion similar to that erected by E. H. Harriman on the crest of the mountain top at Arden, the Moun- through this fact, it having been discovtain Top House, one of the hotels at Valley, is being razed. The property belongs to Mrs. Mary Harriman. lapidaries. It was inclosed in a heartvidow of E. H. Harriman, and the new milding will be occupied by her daughter,

Miss Marguerite Du Mary, daughter of village, as does his successor, Elisha Weddings All Took Place Yesterday in St. John's Church.

ley, daughter of Mra, James Pinley, of will remain. Wheeler street, East Orange, became the and Edward Thatcher, of Bloomfield, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. rector of the church, performed the cere- he was when Mrs. Joseph A. Blake Genevieve Lawiess, of Ridgeburst Road, her husband, Dr. Blake, Mrs. Burnet will spend the and Mrs. Burnet will spend the in Brooklyn.

| West Orange, to Martin J. O'Connor, also of the Mrs. Clarence Mackay leased a the mere gift of technique, and of poetic town house not far distant from that of that town. Miss Anna Lawless, sister of the bride, was tridesmaid, and William of the bride, was tridesmaid. H. Agnew was best man. The Rev. Fran- that she desired to be near her children. cis Reilly, a curate in the church, offi- The activity at Harbor Hill is taken by ter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fitzpatrick, of No. 24 Kingsley street, and Charles Pen- family relations. Margaret Fitzpatrick, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Mary Book, cousin of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid father, wore a gown of ivory satin, with Frank Fitzpatrick, brother of the bride, was best .nan. They will all live in West

LYON WEDS LAMB

Marriage One of Ten Last Night in Corona and Elmhurst.

George Goodwin Lyon, son of Mr. and Frances Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamb, of No. 125 49th street There were ten weddings in Elmhurst rang out simultaneously at 8 o'clock from four churches in Corona and Elmhurst. This evening there will be the culmination of a romance begun in the Long 1stand College Hospital, when Dr. William Campbell and Miss Minnie Louise Murrell are married in the Congregational were at the hospital tegether, and when Dr. Campbell was graduated as a physician Miss Murrell was graduated as a The ceremony will be performed

AN ENGAGEMENT.

GOUCHER HONORS BRIDE Sayre at Chapel.

Mr. Severance gave $45,000 to the True Goucher left chapel this morning the evitable the resuscitation from the limbo Christian Association at Canton. He also Woodrow Sayre, the President's daughter,

This is the time honored custom at missions to which he contributed were Goucher. For every Goucher girl who exchanges her mortarboard for a bridai veil. the wedding march is played the Severance was 5.070 shares of Standard following morning while her sisters in Oil Company of New Jersey, which were college wish the young bride good luck and godspeed

York Central, $294,000; 2,500 General Elec- Wnite House bride is an honorary mem-

GEM FOR JESSIE SAYRE North Carolina Emerald Among

Wedding Gifts.

emerald of about three carats weight, presented by Lovat Fraser, of this city, through lifs friend Dr. W. T. Grenfell. The emerald is a product of the South, giving it an added value to the rec gred on North Carolina property owned by Mr. Fraser, and was cut by American shaper silver box, inscribed with the monogram "J. W. W.," the box reposing n a Siberian malachite jewel case.

Activity at Harbor Hill Home the House of Ravenswood without recog-Starts Rumor.

Clarence H. Mackay, it is reported, is THREE BRIDES IN ORANGE to return with his children to Harbor Hill, his estate near Roslyn, Long Island. Color is given to the rumor, which is unconfirmed, by reason of the fact that many employes on the estate who, it was interested in the proceedings. Orange, N. J., Nov. 25.-Three mar- said, had been given notice that their Orange, N. J., Nov. 28.—Three mar-riages took place in St. John's Church here this afternoon. Miss Josephine Fin-

Several horses and ponies have arrived bride of Harry Thatcher, of Orange. Miss at Harbor Hill in the last few days, and Rose Morgan, of Newark, was bridesmaid. It is said they are for the use of the and Edward Thatcher, of Bloomfield, owner and his children. Mr. Mackay has been living in a leased house in Manhat-The Rev. Nichelas A. Marnell, assistant tan since he returned from Europe, where started a suit against Mrs. Mackay for The second ceremony was that of Miss the alleged alienation of the affections of

When Mrs. Clarence Mackay leased a some Roslyn folk to indicate that Mr. The third couple to be married were Mackay is not altogether pleased at the Miss Elizabeth Agnes Fitzpatrick, daugh- proximity of the town homes of himself and his wife, in view of their present

"Land of Promise" Seen.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) New Haven, Conn., Nov. 26.-Miss Billie Burke produced to-night at the Hyperion Theatre here her new play, "The Land nold, of Promise," written for her by W. Somerset Maugham. A big audience voted laid in Western Canada, and the story has to do with the development of young Norman Tharp, Thomas M. Reynolds, Mrs. Robert J. Lyon, of No. 56 East Polk Lane, Liman Kingsbury, Marion Abbott, Montelair, N. J., Nov. 26.—Miss Lillian Mrs. Robert J. Lyon, of No. 56 East Polk Lane, Liman Kingsbury, Marion Abbott, Mrs. Robert J. Lyon, of No. 56 East Polk Winifred Harris, Mildred Orme and avenue, Corona, and Miss Charlotte Selma Hall. Selma Hall.

"Family Cupboard" to Stay. William A. Brady announces that "The Family Cupboard," one of the first and Corona last night, and wedding bells dramatic productions of last fall, is to remain at the Playhouse. On December s, in a Broadway theatre he will present new comedy by Laurence Eyre. Mr. Brady who directed the dress renearsa! of "Hop O' My Thumb,"

New York last night for Springfield to be present at the opening of Grace Church at Rockaway Beach. The couple George's new play. From Springfield Le will go to Boston for the rehearsals of "Turandot," the Max Rheinhardt spectacle which opens there Monday under the direction of the Shuberts and Mr. Brady. On his return he will begin rehearsals of "Sylvia Runs Away."

GARRISON TO INSPECT HARBOR.

Washington, Nov. 26.-Secretary Garrison will spend Friday inspecting the New Jersey shore with the New York Harbor was made to-day of the engagement of Samuel Butier, son of Representative Thomas S. Butler, and Miss Helen Brinton Sharpless, daughter of Philip M. Sharpless, of Grey Stone Hall. West Chester, Penn.

Jersey shore with the New York Harbor Stored, was placed to-day in the with the federal building here with the cember 3 the secretary will give a hearing the federal building here with the sent of the national government, to only the street of Davis's offices as Preside the Confederate States of America.

MISS HEMPEL AS LUCIA Bridal Chorus Played for Mrs. Metropolitan Hears Soprano in Splendid Voice. The advent of Miss Frieda Hempel at

Baltimore, Nov. 26.—As the students of the Metropolitan Opera House made inhappy and some will not, but the resuscitation was bound to come, as it ever will until the race of coloratura sopranos is Miss Hempel was not in good voice last ear and wisely she postponed the duet with the flute. She returned to us this eason a new singer, refreshed in voice and in confidence, and hence last night's "Lucia." Lucy Ashton was a very unhappy young woman, and if she could have lived Donizetti's musical apotheosis would have probably made her more wretched than kind hearted old Sir Walter ever dreamed.

Miss Hempel was both comely and unepy, and her voice was lusciously ound and rich, the voice of a true lyric prano. Yet in the floratura passages of the mad scene hearts must have by Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, it developed gone back with longing to the days of by Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, it developed here last night, was a heautiful American days of brilliant bravura are apparently Beyond Miss Hempel and Mr. Amato, There was, indeed, a new tenor, Italo Cristalli, whom Mr. Gatti engaged at the eleventh hour when Signor Mariani fell suddenly ill. Signor Cristalli was decidedly nervous last night. and it would be perhaps unjust to judge him finally from his Edgardo. It is enough to say that his voice sounded House was Isaac Noxon, who at the age of eighty-five years still resides in the have passed by this particular scion of nizing one of his favorite and most unhappy children.

The sextet Mr. Polacco made effective. though he took it at a somewhat slower tempo than the one of tradition. The audience was a large one and appeared

There was still another plano recital yesterday afternoon, when Mmc. Cornelia Rider-Possart appeared at Acolian Hall before an audience of moderate size. king's daughter, whom the ogre had trustee of the village. He leaves a son. Mme. Possart has been heard before this season and has proved herself an artist of admirable technical resources. She was that artist again yesterday, and gave of the king's palace, after flop o My Beethoven's Sonata, Op. 2. No. 3. a very Thumb had taken the ogre's sevenadequate reading.

Beethoven, however, requires more than the mere gift of technique, and of poetic Hopper was the king and the lines h the programme were Mozart's "Pastorale Variée," Scarlatti's Presto in D minor and Ludwig Schytte's Sonata, Op. 53.

THEATRICAL NOTES. Harold Forde is temporarily out of the cast of "The Belle" at the Long Acre Theatre. He is suffering from an attack of bronchitis, and will be confined to his home for at least a week. His place will be filled by the stage manager, Mr. Ar-

Joe Weber announces that he will remodel the old Weber-Fields Café into a it a success. The scenes of the play are theatre to accommodate the overflow from the performance of "Traffic in Souls" at Weber's Theatre. This second theatre will English women on a frontier farm. The hold about five hundred. It will be ready east includes Shelley Hull, Lumsden Hare. probably within one week, and performances of "Traffic in Souls" will be given honor of Miss Howard. Barnett Parker, Henry Warwick, Leopold there simultaneously with the performance in the main theatre.

at the Polo Grounds this Saturday. Mme. Nuolo, prima donna soprano of La Scaia, Milan and Covent Garden, London, was among those giving box parties at the 150th performance of "America" at the New York Hippodrome yesterday afternoon.

Twenty-three passengers from the steamship Huron enjoyed a theatre party at the New York Hippodrome yesterday afternoon, reservations having been made for them by wireless last Monday by Captain Chichester.

Tablet to Jefferson Davis.

sent of the national government, to mark Robert Ingersoll Brown, Archibald the site of Davis's offices as President of Rowan, Bentley Gardner and Cornelius

"HOP O' MY THUMB" FE! FI FO! FUM!

Fairy Tale Turned Into a Mournfully Commonplace Extravaganza.

PEOPLE AND CANVAS, BUT NO CHARM OR WIT

Some Brilliant Scenes Submerged in a Sea of Stupid Words and Tiresome Horseplay.

Hop o' My Thumb. An extravaganza, by George R. Sims, Frank Dix and Arthur Collins. The Manhattan Opera House,

THE CAST.

1	King of MnemonicaDe Wolf Hopper
1	Tango Ralph Austin Trotter Waiter S Wills
11	The Kow Zebra Messrs. Schrode and Harris
Ш	Datas
11	Cure Albert tract
Ш
11	Viola Gilette
Ш	1 When build
11	Zaza
11	Jenny
Ш	Davanass Chicat Ross Show
Н	Hop o' My Thumb Iris Hawkins
П	Hop's Brothers - Martha Ehrlich
П	John Henry Martin Entrelie
Ш	Arthur Herbert Winnie Ritchie George Frederick Leah de Piean
11	Richard Arthur Littian Parry
11
H	The item the illians Phillips Partitions
Ш	The Riv Principality Misses Shipping Franchis
Ш	At the telephone A Loughtman Mousery, Cropping
11	Living StatuesThe De Serris
Ш	Amber WitchFlavia Acaro
1	Pairs Forget ma-not Bertun Deimonte
-	Volume of the Night Polith troping
	Fairy Love
	A great deal has been said about "Hop

o' My Thumb," which was presented at the Manhattan Opera House last evening. and undoubtedly a great deal of money spent on it. There were a dozen more or less elaborate scenes and a great many people. Hop o' My Thumb and his six little brothers were among them, but they didn't count for very much. Scarcely could they get on the stage before they were whisked off it to make way for some more of the inexpressibly dull-and at time inexcusably vulgar-book, dreary songs and still drearier attempts of the comedians to be funny. The fairy tale part of the performance was of very little interest, apparently, to those responsible for the production, and o My Thumb and his brothers might almost as well not have been there at all. The greater part of the time was given up to attempts at regulation Broadgrotesque in any good musical comedy, and almost have got the hook in bur-In the first act there was a stage horse as amusing as other stage horses of rewas also well thought out and agreeable. It represented the Garden of Statues, in which the wicked ogre kept the people he intended to cat later on. They were turned to marble and only awakened when he needed them by sprinkling them with water from the magic fountain. The huge stage was covered with these the sang Ashton, the cast was distinctly figures, revealed gradually as a sort of moonlight grew brighter, all posed like a marble Watteau fête galante.

forthwith they drifted into a graceful pointed by Presidents McKinley, Rooseballet. Even allowing for the squeaking pulleys, torn curtains and nervous backden scene was the only one of the six in and 1896, and was a member of the local drops of a nervous first night, this gar-actress," as she has been called, was, indeed, most interestingly small. She was little dance on a table top, aithough, as mantown. Penn. He was forty-five years Hop o' My Thumb, she seemed a trifle casual and indifferent, as if she were much more interested in herself than in acting like a little boy who was looking out for his six little brothers. Miss Eva years, died there yesterday. He was a Fallon, a strange exotic figure from mu-graduate of Fordham College. stolen when she was too young to pro test. In the second act, which opened in league boots and got away from him, Mr. Hopper sprang into the breach. Mr. had to speak must have made him think mightily of happier days. An actor's life is, indeed, a tragic one. The audience gave Mr. Hopper every encouragement they could, and he struggled gamely, but it was then nearly Il o'clock by

And the task was too much for any

DANCE AT ARDSLEY CLUB

held at the Ardsley Club at Tarrytown last night. Two hundred members and guests attended. A number of dinner parties preceded the dance, the largest being given by Mrs. Otto G. Smith in Those at the dance were Mr. and Mrs.

Oswald G. Villard, Mrs. Henry Villard, Arrangements are being completed by Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Townsend, Mr. the management of the Palace Theatre and Mrs. Steven C. Millette, Mr. and for the presentation, beginning Monday Mrs. Anson Elower Robinson, Mr. and afternoon of exclusive films of the Army Mrs. Maitland F. Griggs, Mr. and Mrs. and Navy game of football, to be played Otto G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clendennin and Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Brooks. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Spraker, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald H. Jaffray, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King Wood, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dickenson, Mr. and Mrz. George Albert Legg. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Queal, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cass. Mrs. Ar thur Hansle, Miss Anne Depew Paulding. Miss Holbrook, Miss Dorothy Legg Howard, Miss Constance McKelvey, Miss Constance Allen, the Misses Madge and Alic Richmond, Va., Nov. 26.-A bronze tab- Rowan, Miss Eva Ingersoll Brown, Miss let to Jefferson Davis, whose name was Florence Helm, Miss Esther Bordman, chiselled off Cabin John Bridge in Wash- Mrs. Paul Outerbridge, Mrs. W. J. Worington by federal authority, but later re- cester, Mr. and Mrs. Carman Messore, stored, was placed to-day in the wall of and Messis, W. F. Baylis, T. O. Coffin the federal building here with the con- George G. Bordman, E. W. Levinworth, Smith, jr.

FINDS MOTHER, 70, Professor McBain's Parent-in-

Mrs. C. T. Bartlett, seventy years old. died suddenly from heart failure last night in the apartments of her son-inlaw, Professor Howard L. McBain, of Columbia University, in the Cambridge Hall apartments, No. 456 Riverside Drive. Professor McBain was giving a small dinner party to Albert Springs, of No. 128 West 13th street, and Julian B. Beaty, of 65 West 54th street, who acted as secretary to Mayor Kline during the cam-

Law Is Stricken.

Mrs. Bartlett had decided to rest a while before the dinner hour, and when the meal was about to be served Mrs.

McBain went to call her mother. On entering the room Mrs. McBain found Mrs. Bartlett lying on the floor. A doctor was summoned and he prosounced the woman dead. Mrs. Bartlett came to live with her son-in-law three months ago. Her home was in Warsaw, N. Y.

OBITUARY.

MORGAN HILL

Reno, Nev., Nov. 26.-Morgan Hill, a wealthy cattleman and owner of three ranches, comprising 22,000 acres, on the Humboldt River, is dead at Elko, Nev., from paralysis after a year's illness. He leaves a wife, the daughter of Daniel Murphy, a prominent cattleman, and a daughter, the wife of Captain Worth, formerly of the French Army. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were well known in New York and

THADDEUS FIRTH.

Thaddeus Firth, one of the oldest residents of Maspeth, Queens, died on Monday night on the estate which has been in possession of that family for more than a century. He was ninety-two years old. He was born in this city on July 23, 1821, and came from a family of piano manufacturers and music publishers. His grandfather, Edward Riley, was one of the first publishers of music in this city. Mr. Firth became interested in the pubmember of the firm of Firth, Pond & Co., piano manufacturers.

He aided in organizing the Republican party, and last Election Day, despite his age, he walked to the polls and voted. He leaves two sons, Thaddeus and Edward Firth, of Brooklyn; two daughters, Mrs. George Cotton and Miss Elizabeth Firth; three grandchildren and two great-grand-

MRS. ELIZABETH H. SPRAGUE. Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison Sprague, widow

of Colonel Nathan Turner Sprague, died yesterday at her home, No. 1 South Portway humor-attempts the greater part of land avenue. Brooklyn. The funeral will which would have been regarded as be held at her home to-morrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and the burial will be private. After Colonel Sprague died, about ten years ago, Mrs. Sprague devoted a large part of her time to charitable work. called the Kow Zebra, almost if not quite | She was a member of the-Hanson Place Baptist Church, of Brooklyn, and of the Orphan Asylum Society, besides other orcent years, but then he tarried but a Orphan Asylum Society, besides other or-little while. The final scene in this act gankzations devoted to welfare work, Mrs. Sprague leaves no children, but two sis ters-Mrs. C. N. Thompson and Mrs. J. P. Cooke-survive her.

GEORGE H. TICE.

Perth Amboy, N. J., Nov. 26,-George H. Tice, who for more than seventeen years was postmaster here, died this afternoon. He had been a prominent Republican politician for years. Mr. Tice was born in Perth Amboy and had lived here all his life. He was appointed postmaster by magic fountain and awakened them, and President Harrison, and had been reap-velt and Taft. Mr. Tice had served as a Freeholder of the county, was an Assemblyman in 1895

OBITUARY NOTES. GEORGE B. STEVENSON, a Philadelphia banker, is dead at his home in Ger-

THE REV. JAMES A. KELLY, sixtythree years old, rector of St. Patrick's Church, Oneida, N. Y., for twenty-seven

ISAAC B. LOVETT, eighty-four years rough-house comedians against whom she old, died yesterday at East View, N. Y., shone, was another momentary oasis from after an illness of ten months. He was time to time. She was Mirabelle, the or forty years a member of the Second ogre's beautiful daughter, or, rather, the Reformed Church, and was at one time

RIVERA LEAVES PORTO RICO.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Nov. 26.-Luis Munos Rivera, Resident Commissioner for Porto Rico, in Washington sailed for New York to-day on the steamer Brazos.

HINTON-BALDWIN-On Tuesday, November 25, 1913, at St. George's Church, by Rev. Karl Rieland, Eleanor Hinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Post Hinton, to belavan Munson Baldwin.

accompanied by full name and address.

DIED.

Arnold, Letitia K. Burr, Julian P. Carmichael, Samuel Sprague, E. H.

Thanksgiving 'Eve Jollification
Proves Big Success.

A jolly Thanksgiving Eve dance was held at the Ardsley Club at Tarrytown last night. Two hundred members and squests attended. A number of dinner guests attended. A number of dinner thanksgiving Eve Jollification of the provided of t

BURR—On Wednesday, November 26, at Chicago, Julian Penfield Burr. Funeral services at Westport, Conn. Announce-ment of time later.

CARMICHAEL—On Wednesday, November 28, 1913, Samuel Carmichael, in his 73d year. Funeral services at his late residence, No. 507 Decatar st., on Friday, November 28, at 8 p. m. Kindly day. Novemborit flowers.

FIRTH-At Maspeth, Long Island, November 24, 1913, Thaddeus Firth, son of the late John and Eleanor Riley Firth, in his 92d year, Funeral private, Kindly omit flowers.

Kindly omit flowers.

KLEINJUNG—At Ridgewood, N. J., November 25, 1913, Rudolf Kleinjung, in the 54th year of his age. Funeral services at his late residence, No. 63 Monte Vista Place, Ridgewood, N. J., on Saturday, November 29, at 2 o'clock, on the arrival of the 12:54 train, Jersey City, Eric Railroad, Interment in Vallvan Cemetery, Ridgewood, N. J.

SPRAGUE—In Brooklyn, November 28, 1913, Elizabeth Harrison, widow of the late N. T. Sprague. Funeral services at her late residence, No. 1 South Port-land ave., Friday, November 28, at 4:30 p. m. Interment private.

CEMETERIES. THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY. 23ad St. By Harlem Train and by Trolley. Office. 29 East 23d St., N. Y.

OFFICES.

MAIN OFFICE—No. 154 Nassau street.
UPTOWN OFFICE—No. 1504 Broadway, or any American District Telegraph Office.
HARLEM CFFICE—No. 157 East 125th street. No. 263 West 125th street and No.
219 West 125th street.